In a just about perfect op-ed, Sen. Michigan state Senate panel approves measure effectively banning courses at state colleges that "promote or discourage" unionization. Still, as with the pipeline troubles above, the Executive Order isn't the end of it -- Mr.

You know, when they're not busy figuring out which bill to stop pay this month? Rep. Voters in Greece gave the leftist party SYRIZA a near-majority of Parliament seats on Sunday, and then SYRIZA then promptly formed a coalition government with the far-right, anti-bailout party Independent Greeks; some of the Independents' platform is unpalatable, but it would be nice to see populists on left and right come together to do some good for. Facebook has finally given its users the ability to prioritize what shows up in their news feed. Five-to-one still isn't one-to-one, ye teabag-toting warriors against the Obamanoid Communist Socialist Nazi Kenyan Anti-colonialist Revolution. Well, then, they're fighting words. If you've missed previous opportunities to tell Congress to finally debate, and then end, the war in Iraq and Syria then Just Foreign Policy joins with MoveOn to help you do. I just hope we're still around to learn from it.
