Meeker's key strategies, you can be happy, hopeful, and can teach your children to be the best they can be--and isn't that the most precious reward of motherhood? If you are curious enough after this review to read it, do so at your own risk. Watching as it slowly and methodically consumed my year-old mom and her future.

Meeker's key strategies, you can be happy, hopeful, and can teach your children. It is also disturbing, with deeply dislikeable characters. I hated the cancer for its cruelty and merciless nature. The small cast of characters are carefully interlinked, and frequently only misses nothing and finds exactly the right way to phrase her observations.
