Technology comes with a whole set of issues and where I have connected most with Christ has been when I have unplugged rather than from some characters-long-message. Shifts from modernist to postmodernist thinking, the toppling of the Enlightenment paradigm, among other things, shape and inform the contrast between "Gutenbergers" and "Googlers" as much, if not more so, than using books vs. May 01, Gail Welborn rated it it was amazing Shelves:

ForGooglers, it's a stark reminder that there was a whole world that was constant. Along the way, he uses many new words, like 'complexity' and 'metaphor', words he uses to better define the culture we now live in. We have raised a new generation of people who can't read music, and only can repeat phrases over and over. In Viral, Sweet introduces two concepts namely the Gutenberg culture and the Googlers culture.
