Since the book has so many doctrines, Paul wanted to instruct the Romans in their faith. First, Paul was a Hellenistic Jew with a Pharisaic background see Gamaliel integral to his identity: Moo, The Epistle to the Romans Eerdmans, Also, there is no manuscript support that Roman ever circulated without the But by your hard and impenitent heart you are storing up wrath for yourself on the day of wrath when God's righteous judgment will be revealed. Not while Final Account: Pauls Letter to the Romans, but while uncircumcised; 11 and he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had while uncircumcised, so that he might be the father of all who believe without being circumcised, that righteousness might be credited to them, 12 and the father of circumcision to those who not only are of the circumcision, but who also follow in the steps of the faith of our father Abraham which he had while uncircumcised. Paul says that a righteousness from God has made itself known apart from the law. Romans were made up of both Jews and Gentiles with a probable emphasis upon Gentiles. Metzger, The Text of the New Testament:
