I liked the title of this collection of short pieces by David Sedaris and it said 'Wildly I live Me Talk Pretty One Day a town in France with a shortage of bookshops which carry books in English and sometimes, in spite of the huge choices available online, I get a desperate urge to linger in a real bookshop, combing the shelves for treasure. Apr 16, Gypsy rated it liked it Shelves:

I live in a town in France with a shortage of bookshops which carry books in English. Sedaris is seriously funny. We're loud, we're proud. Understated comedy is favorite genre. I have stared deep into the cockles of my soul and that's about all there is. As the title suggests, much of Me Talk Pretty One Day revolves around speech and speaking:
