Also like so many people, I am a very busy person, and it has been difficult to find the time to take classes to learn more than just the basics. When I was told this, I told the director about teaching myself photography and how I would love to take pictures for the shelter and I would do it for. I really do think that this is one of the best courses I've seen out there in cyberspace, and I know that it would help me take my photography into the next level.

If I could move people in such a way with my creative and loving spirit, I think

Hopefully with the knowledge I acquire from the course I would be able to specialize in people and landscape photography.
