In our dualistic terms of reference, this means we accept whatever arises, internally or externally. Just write a comment .

The crucial thing with this approach is to recognise the basic space of awareness. We know very well that hindrances and distractions are BAD! It can, of course, also arise anywhere, under any circumstances. Others might find it useful to use their imagination to get a feel for it.

Within the wholly positive expanse, samsara and nirvana have never existed. a complete openness to our experience.
