Have people responded to your mermaid books differently than they have to you? November 13, Whispersync for Voice: And in that fast paced young adult novel for fantasy readers, it was the author's well-crafted word and sentences that were so captivating. Ruthless forces are gathering within these seas, and life for the merpeople may be in jeopardy. This is a great novel from a stellar author. It made it less believable and more like trying to capitalize on the whole Vampire craze when she could have brought in something to do with the sea.
