Which probably explains why there review is longer than usual Ok, soonly the first

If we are all becoming "aggregators" in one sense or another, we need to understand the different kinds of journalism, and know how to evaluate them as what they are, not what we wish they. America in the Age of Mixed Media. How to Know What to Believe Anymore.

It's not quite a fit for the classes I'm teaching right now, but I'd highly recommend it. There is some interesting information here but I had hoped for more impact and more readability.
