She first meets Paul van Wagoner in this one. Sep 22, Debby rated it really liked it.

Nonetheless, a page-turner for those who like thrillers - it would almost qualify. I agree with the other reviewers that this book is not up to the authors' usual standard. It is about when Nina was working as a paralegal and her son, Bob, was at a very young age. Nina decided to investigate. Share your thoughts with other customers. The only way it could have had a completely happy ending would be for the victim to have not died, but this is a book about Nina the paralegal solving a murder.
