Jan 05, Erin added it. My main criticism is the lack of photos. Even lifelong New Yorkers would have trouble answering this question.

Share your thoughts with other customers. The City Review highly recommends this book. This book is probably one of the few books to actually have an entire chapter devoted to these two islands. Isn't that pretty key? Small book with many color photographs. Good if read in conjunction with other histories of NY to get more general background information. It truly is a "visual celebration" because of the number of maps, portraits, drawings.
