If you're looking for Dracula to make a cameo, read something. The story is compiled from a fictional Stoker "Dracula Dossier" containing letters and newspaper clippings in a file obtained at auction, supplemented by pertinent entries of Stoker's journal and recorded historical factoids.

While the plot cleverly interweaves into actual history, it's quite predictable. Quotes from The Dracula Dossier I was attracted to this book by the title as I am interested in books related to the famous Count Dracula.

His knowledge and research clearly show throughout the book and demonstrate no discussion topics on this book .
