Gog and Magog Messianic Age. Learn as if you were to live forever. Thus, Revelation characterizes a millennium where Christ and the Father will rule over a theocracy of the righteous.

So, in him, "all of them will rise again with their own bodies which they now bear." The rapture is a Christian eschatological term used by certain Christians, particularly within branches of North American evangelicalism referring to an end time event when all Christian believers – living and dead – will rise into Heaven and join Christ. Wikipedia has an article about: For the Anthropocene, the best candidate for such a golden spike are radioactive elements from nuclear bomb tests, which were blown into the stratosphere before settling down to Earth. Christian millennialist thinking is primarily based upon the Book of Revelation. The Beast is the earthly power supported by the Dragon Satan.
