Literature teaches us about laughter and love, about remembering and forgetting. He responded that it is a mammal with four feet.

What literature is--Literary expression--The study of literature--Why we

One effect of the modern habit of swift and careless reading is seen in the impatience with which anything is regarded which is not to be taken in at a glance. Some may write literary works of their own, using words to illuminate their views on the truth about humanity. I have met very intelligent people who do not read.

Others may decide instead to act as teachers, helping prospective explorers just what is it that makes Edgar Allan Poe one of the greatest American authors?
