It felt like he was just alternating sentences with nasty judgmental thoughts and sweet things spoken out loud to his cute kids. Feb 03, Tyler Morton rated it liked it. The level of reward depends entirely on the skill of the writer, and Bucatinsky is an especially gifted comic writer.

AmazonAdvertisingFind, attract, and engage customers. I do love a good parent. He also wanders into his own sexual history, which is probably something gay men are questioned about by half the strangers they meet anyway so why not? Having said that, while there are few obscenities and no gratuitous sex or violence, it isn't for the faint of heart.

On the other hand, sometimes the most politically powerful gesture is absence is what we need more of-- parents not pretending to have it all figured .
