That just about summarizes my feelings for the Warded Man. And gigantic rock demons, the deadliest of all. Celestine has nothing to worry about, with glowing dreams of being a mathematician. It's not a dealbreaker by any means, but it did annoy me. The Demon Cycle gets better the further you get into it; not that the beginning was bad by any means but Brett really surprised me with where he took this series. What saved it for me was the strong concept revolving around demons and wards. the 'Harry Dresden' complex.
