May 16, Andreas Stavros rated it it was amazing. I went in to it not being sure if it would be a story of pathos and drama, leaving one feeling sorrowful for the The Diddakoi heroine whose deck was always stacked against .

TheDiddakoifavouriteoneisAdmiralTwissbecausehehasakindheartandhe' Kizzy is a half-romani girl aged 7 or 8 who has been brought up by her great-great-grandmother. Overall a really lovely story with interesting characters and a beautiful ending. TobehonestIdon'tremembermuchofthestorybutitmusthavebeensomethings read it so many times that the pages all fell. Themes involve traditions of travellers, bullying, adoption, family, village life, grief and loss.
