In these critical times the dukes sought to save the country; still they saw clearly that only a union of all the duchies could successfully ward off the danger from without; the royal power was to find its entire support in the laity. God brought the animals to the prince and made them subject to him, and he divided them into seven classes.

Let us illustrate this with a single example. The Power of Example. The race today is found chiefly in Asia Minor, Syria, and Mesopotamia. To restrict ourselves to the Hebrew of the Bible, we are amazed at the varied literature here presented. Each time an emperor went to Italy to be crowned that country had to be reconquered.

The sovereigns of this line were vigorous, vehement, and autocratic rulers. The brilliant success of Francis I over the Swiss at Marignano forced Maximilian to agree to a peace by which the French received Milan, and Venice obtained Verona. Romances were added in due course.
