Some Girls Do by Clodagh Murphy

Clodagh Murphy is back this year with a scorching new book,

Some Girls Do . the male lead is one of the most desirable leading men I've ever read in a book (right I was expecting more smut, but it was all so sexy and fun, that I didn't mind

Although mainly told by Claire there are parts of the story that are told by womaniser Luca and I really liked getting inside his head, seeing his relationship with Clodagh grow, and also change. She enlists the help of self-professed man slut Luca to teach her the rules of the bedroom so she becomes more like her sex pot alter ego.

ItreachedapointIhadtoairoutmytear ducts.I adored Luca and how sweet and patient he was with Claire. However, it seemed quite hurried in the end--as if the writer got tired of telling the story and just wanted to get it over with, leaving quite a lot of plot holes in its wake.
