Many of his previous friends and associates forsook him and joined the ranks of those who troubled him 2 Samuel This strophe shows the Lord to be our shield, our glory, the restorer of our joy, and our prayer-answering God. Psalm 3 is attributed to David in particular, when he fled from Absalom his son.

It is the most bitter of all afflictions to be led to fear that there is no help for us
Parsons – Jhn 1: David wrote this, in all probability, while actually fleeing for his life from Absalom.

It is a personal thanksgiving to God who answered the prayer of an afflicted soul
I have never gone through anything close to what David experienced, I have had several times in the past 32 years of pastoral ministry when a disgruntled faction in the church rose up against me.
