In addition to our 45 selections, the series editors made 15 selections. It's a defensive movement again, to muddle exposition and evade defeat. But what about reciprocal alterity? The forms are looser, more spontaneous, organic; they arise from the subject matter and the feeling of the poet as the poem is written, and from the natural pauses of the spoken language. The poet as persona is largely absent from the poem while the investigative passion of the poet informs every syllable.

How can the bird, the fly-catcher, enter the poem without having to do work for a pen and see what words flow from your fingers.
