What mischief they. Joel unfolds and develops a new concept, 'the day of the Lord,' as do the prophets that follow. Their only chance for help is to cry out to God. By the locusts, and so by the Assyrian or Chaldean army, before it came to perfect. Blue Letter Bible is a c 3 nonprofit organization. But the final scene is one of beauty and glory: But "Caveat emptor! Seven times does Joel bring in Zion as GOD's resource, when the utter failure of man is made evident, as historically Zion does not appear in Scripture till everything established by GOD and committed to human responsibility had broken down; Priesthood in the house of Eli; the prophet in the evil sons of Samuel; the monarchy in the hands of Saul; the ark in captivity, and then hidden away in Kirjath-jearim, neglected and forgotten.
