Every person at her school died. At the time of the bombing, I was two years and two months old. A Black Rain Fell. In total, the two bombs killed an estimated people as a result of the blast itself. A gust of hot wind hit my face; I instantly closed my eyes and knelt down to the ground. I remember feeling shocked that I could make out the Setonai Islands in the distance, which used to be inhibited by buildings. As Grant makes clear, the devastation likely to be caused by these latter weapons has since become an advocate for the elimination of nuclear weapons and hopes that in sharing his experience he can prevent others from having to suffer the effects of nuclear weapons.
